

The essentials of Politics Trove

Accessing your textbooks

You and your students need to be logged in to your university network to gain access to Politics Trove. Use the 'Sign in via your institution' option in the left-hand box on the homepage and follow the instructions.

Linking to reading

Use DOI links to direct your students to specific content for their studying on your module. DOI links are available at book and chapter level on Politics Trove.

Comparative Politics (5th edn)

9. Constitutions, Rights, and Judicial Power

Alec Stone Sweet

<https://doi.org/10.1093/hepl/9780198820604.003.0009>

Published in print: 29 April 2020 | Published online: August 2020

<https://doi.org/10.1093/hepl/9780198820604.001.0001>

ISBN: 9780198820604

Publisher: Oxford University Press

Personal Profiles

In order to get the most out of Politics Trove, students will need to create a Personal Profile. This is done using the 'Create' button in the top right-hand corner of the homepage. Setting up a Personal Profile allows users to highlight and annotate text, bookmark important passages, and save searches.

Study tools

There are plenty of additional study and testing resources available via Politics Trove.

The 'Related Links' box at the end of each chapter links to our free-to-use supporting resources where students can test their understanding with multiple choice questions and flashcards, as well as find updates to content and advice on tackling problem questions.

Walkthrough videos

Walkthrough videos for Politics Trove are available from our Customer Service's 'User Guides' page on the Politics Trove website.

These short videos will help you get started using Trove. From logging in to adding DOI links to reading lists, the walkthroughs will help you make the most of your subscription.

Key titles

Politics Trove includes access to market-leading textbooks, including the latest edition of The Globalization of World Politics by Baylis, Smith, and Owens.

Blick
UK Politics

Clark, Foster & Bryman
How to do your Social Research Project or Dissertation

Baylis, Smith & Owens
The Globalization of World Politics

Help & contact

For more advice on using Politics Trove please refer to our Customer Service pages on the Politics Trove website. Here you will find our suite of materials to help get you started using the platform, including tutorial videos and information on training webinars run by OUP.

If you have any further queries, please contact your campus representative.